Copper Patina

The image shows a close-up of a textured surface, possibly a piece of aged metal or stone, with a central vertical element that looks like a handle or a seam. The texture is highly detailed, with various shades of brown, tan, and grey, and some areas that appear to be weathered or pitted. A soft, blueish light emanates from the central vertical element. In the top right corner, there is a black rectangular box containing white text.

“Crypto” recessed handle with LED lighting.

Door Style

Mystique Edition

Design: ME 10

Rustic Patina

The image shows a close-up of a door with a dark, textured wood-grain finish. A black horizontal strip, likely a partition or handle, runs across the middle of the door. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the texture of the wood and the sleek surface of the black strip. In the upper right corner, there is a black text box with white text.

For doors higher than 3 meters,
10mm partitions are applied.

T920

A close-up photograph of a 3D printed stainless steel detail. The detail consists of two thin, polished metal strips that intersect at a right angle. One strip is oriented vertically, and the other is oriented diagonally. The background is a dark, textured surface, possibly a wall or a panel, which provides a high-contrast backdrop for the metallic strips. The lighting highlights the smooth, reflective surface of the stainless steel.

The image shows a close-up of a material with a two-color combination. A dark, textured material, possibly leather or a similar synthetic material, is positioned in the lower-left corner. The rest of the image is a light grey, textured material, likely a special external aluminium facing. A diagonal line separates the two materials. A dark, metallic-looking strip is visible in the upper-left corner.
